Let me take you to a tour of the history of establishment of this college. This college was established by the then Secretary to the British Government in the year 1906 as recommended by the historic Wood's Despatch (1854). It got christened as The Secondary Training College, and began functioning as an autonomous institute conferring its own Diploma in Teaching. later after getting our freedom from the British, as The Government of Maharashtra took over it came to be known as The Government a College of Education too. It began with Mr. J.N.Fraser acting as the First ever Principal of the college And then on got laid the foundation of illustrious scholars holding the helm of affairs. Since then till date there have been change of hand 44 times.
